GETTING TO KNOW YOU

The Psalmist wrote, “For it was you who formed my inward parts; you knit me together in my mother’s womb. I praise you, for I am wonderfully made.” (Psalm 139: 13, 14 NRSV) God knows us completely and has a plan for our lives. In times of transition this is particularly important to remember. God know us and has a plan. Let us say it and think about the promise and significance. “God know us and has a plan.” It is with that assurance that I begin my appointment as the Cornerstone District Superintendent and a member of Bishop Fisher’s cabinet.

My first agenda item is to get to know the pastors and lay leaders in the district. I believe that God has called us to be a team and that united in effort and purpose we can accomplish everything God desires for our churches and conference. Relationships between leaders is important for maximum positive results as we work together to help create the Conference’s vision for “healthy, disciple-making, growing and serving churches.” I look forward to relationship-building visits, time for prayer, visits to worship services, and strategic planning. May this summer be a time for building the connection between the people who God has knit together and has wonderfully made.
